Flying Circus whisked away to sound and colors exploding with signature of a special-effects company for AC/DC heavy-metal road crews who steer a 'fine line between art and arson'. Manhunt for Ryan Jenkins 'alleged' to have killed and mutilated ex-wife Jasmine after VH1 Celebrealty show. Note Oxoby played for 'The Mutilators' and produced this CRaP 'On the Efficiency of AC/DC in a simple bargaining environment'. Fiore was silenced and Jenkins is about to be, to protect heavy-metal Ku band snuff film network. Abel Danger changes missions. Blabbermouth 3C re-triangulates Jenkins in area defined by Richmond-Comox-Abbotsford. Another Piggy Palace Good Times Connexion; signature dismemberment for snuff films broadcast over Ku band to VH1 and FEARnet Pay-Per-View. Claim intentional lack of screening used to recruit violent killers for shows staged with potential victims. Message to BC Premier Campbell: VH1 Dirty Deeds Done Cheap - Bombing Vancouver 2010 Olympic Games. Hillary uses International Civil Aviation Organization Standards to allow identity theft through patented RFID, electronic passports. QH privatized Office of Personnel Management files on Soetoro and put them into Bell & Howell's microfilm archive operated through Northwestern. Brucey B. TF'd the FBI in "Trilogy" program. Bienen and Peterson are using NYC Business International Corporation ('BI') and Northwestern's Internet2 network to reward CIA/SAD camera crews. BI paid Dohrn's Students for a Democratic Society to stage Days of Rage. Bienen hired Obama from Columbia University. Chips ordered to follow dark fiber to NU dial-a-yeild genocides and archives of snuff. Look for academics with grudge. Note Oxoby was co-owner and recording engineer at Super Bee Studios; a musician into Blood & Gore films. In Ryder truck outside Barley Mill, Homi intercepts call for voice splicing, dubbing and re-distribution; similar VHI heavy-metal production on 9/11 with Ted Olson where "Let's Roll" actors hid real fate of AA 77 and United 93.

As the 'main bang' of the Flying Circus was being whisked away from the LSG catering truck and the 'lockdown' Lufthansa B747-400, QB observed that the staccato sound seemed to be in perfect unison with some vivid colors exploding in the sky just to the south east of the Calgary airport. Being a connoisseur of the genre, he recognized the signature of Pyrotek, the preferred special-effects company for AC/DC and heavy-metal sister groups where road crews steered a 'fine line between art and arson'.

<http://www.pyrotekfx.com/images/PR/im3.jpg>

After the Abel Danger group and Agent Bent had determined that gunfire was not occurring and Bent was about ready to call in an RCMP helo for an extract, every Clipper in the Limo went off with a 'Flash priority' message from Marquis d'Cartier who had been sitting, pre-positioned and alone, at the Barley Mill bar watching the TV mostly because he was interested in the weekend weather in the Calgary, Saskatoon and Vancouver areas.

"Blabbermouth 7C to Chips/TCT: Vancouver Sun says massive manhunt is underway in triangle defined by Mideastern Vancouver Island, Whidbey Island and Vancouver Airport. Target is Ryan Jenkins who is 'alleged' to have mutilated his ex-wife Jasmine Fiore after killing her. Note Oxoby played for 'The Mutilators' and produced this CRaP 'On the Efficiency of AC/DC: Bon Scott versus Brian Johnson Robert J. Oxoby University of Calgary Economics Discussion Paper No. 2007-08 Abstract: We explore the effects of listening to the music of AC/DC in a simple bargaining environment'. Fiore was silenced and Jenkins is about to be to protect heavy-metal Ku band snuff film network. Abel Danger must change missions immediately. Blabbermouth 3C re-triangulated Jenkins in area defined by Richmond-Comox-Abbotsford; Diehard, Gravedigger engaged. RSVP BM"

Agent Bent immediately dialed the Mounties to confirm as an immediate from Queen Hornet at NAPA WASH indicated the FBI was engaged. The race was on. Stone pulled the limo over by an FBO at the south-east corner of the airfield and put the tranny in P and turned on the flashers. "Dad, do you see what I see next to the Springbank Aero Services Esso fuel truck?"

Chips looked to the left and saw a Gulfstream G550 that appeared to have just been topped off by the Esso fuel truck in front of Skyservice FBO. Recognizing the G550 he turned to the man in the lime green leisure suit and asked Buck "Didn't you recently get a demo of a G550 down in Georgia... the same Georgia that the Devil Went Down to when he was looking for a soul to steal as opposed to the Georgia that I flew across in August of 2008 as the Global Guardians started a war between Georgia and Russia?"

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=tnepPZChA5U>

"Chips, correct you are. Monday morning at 1000 I looked at a used G550 owned by a church friend; it is for sale and would make a great asset for the Flying Circus."

"Stone, drive over to that jet; Jam, QB and Buck, get ready to take that Gulfstream for a ride. Head towards Abbotsford and listen on Clipper 3 and HF 2828. Bent, please call in the chopper to get MdC from the Barley Mill; we need to get to Jenkins before the FBI/BC assets kill him. Madam Melusina needs to Arkancide Jenkins before he can point the finger – pardon the use of finger and Jenkins in same sentence, at the Heavy Metal /

KU band / Chicago / Matrix Red murderers. QB, ensure if you deploy a Cue Ball it is from Chicago, Atlanta or Arkansas; Jam if you get to him first get his shoes, if you get to him 'too late' put him in the bikini and help QB stuff the turkey. Any questions?"

"Dad, what should I do with the Limo?"

"Stone, while QB, Jam and Buck rip off the G550, Bent will wait here for the RCMP helo extracting Blabbermouth 7C from the top of the Barley Mill. You and I will proceed to the Barley Mill and pick up a woman that looks somewhat like Jam for Operation Banff Bogus as Jam, QB and Buck race with Blabbermouth 7C to get to Jenkins before the G-men do, capeche?"

As Jam, QB, and Buck headed for the Gulfstream, Bent stood on the tarmac looking due south as a helo descended from view, vertically, in the area of the Eau Claire Market. Hamish had MDC on Clipper channel 1 and said simply: "Marquis, go to roof, await RCMP helo, next stop Abbotsford, this is the real deal, Hamish."

Hamish's message was crossing an incoming Clipper from Blabbermouth 3C, to wit:

"Blabbermouth 3C Clipper: Looks like British Columbia has another Piggy Palace Good Times Connexion; signature dismemberment of victims for snuff films broadcast over Ku band to VHI's Pay-Per-View heavy-metal network. You need to track the VHI reality star who has fled to British Columbia; the land of Piggy Palace. He's wanted for questioning after body of his ex wife, Jasmine Fiore, found stuffed into a suitcase in a Buena Park, Calif. trash bin.. A man matching his description was spotted on a boat at Point Roberts -- U.S. territory that is reachable by land only from Canada. His nickname is "Smooth Operator". BM3C out"

Hamish acknowledged the Clipper from Dwarf and commented to Chips "He isn't as smooth as he thinks he is and further he doesn't know who he has been used by, the same organization that will 'use him up' if they get to him first. Have Dwarf MWT the target please."

"Do it yourself, Hamish, I have to get Jam's suitcase to her."

"She had her carryon with her Chips, please Clipper Dwarf".

"Hamish, the bag she had had no jammies in it so I am sending along a suitcase that has Jam's jammies. Plus, I want to put in a disc of a song that will mean something special to Jam, QB, you and me but perhaps no one else."

"Chips, you sure waste a lot of time with music, time we don't have."

"Oh yea of little faith, watch this" as he dialed QB, Jam and Hamish's Clippers and pushed code D8 transmit on his own Clipper outgoing."

http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=YjYsl__loTw

Chips had no sooner sent it than Bent nudged him and pointed at a helo climbing to the north from the area of the Eau Claire Market. As the helo flew low into the Calgary Airport Traffic Control Area, they could hear the whine of the #2 engine on the Gulfstream as Buck had the checklists done and would be ready for an immediate departure once Marquis d'Cartier was aboard.

Simultaneously, 3 routine Clippers came in from QB, Jam and Dwarf in that order:

"Tangerine"

"Tangerine"

"MWT indicate Madam Melusina's Dope"

"Hamish, your lack of faith is now in question as QB and Jam had already picked up on the steganographic reference in song to 'tangerine' in the lyrics and further Dwarf anticipated your thoughts and has triangulated Jenkins's location using Ku band Micro Wave Triangulation; an ugly step child to HAARP."

"Well Chips, you make mistakes too. Harp only has one 'A', so there."

"Hamish, if you refer to Harp Lager, the Irish beer, you are correct, but Dwarf's background traces back to micro-wave installations in Viet Nam and perhaps a little custom work on the HAARP project that has ties to Alaska, Puerto Rico, Norway and Russia. Dwarf's encrypted 'Madam Melusina's Dope identifies Hope BC as Jenkins's location, consider 'the dope from Hope'. "

Rico Gambolino's Fast Ford adjacent to FEMA warehouse, Dilworth MN.jpg

Chips had just finished his rebuke of the unfaithful when Rico Gambolino's Fast Ford arrived at the Gulfstream just as the Mountie helo landed. Dwarf ran from the Ford to the Gulfstream just as Marquis jogged from the helo to the jet. After the two LMAs had boarded, Jam closed the door, gave a thumb's up to Buck and asked Buck and QB if they'd like a little something to wash down the trail dust.

"That gives me an idea Jam. Here, QB, this one is from Johnny's Hideaway in Atlanta; that might prove useful if we are late. And Jam, if Chips were here what would he drink?"

"At this early hour 3 or 4 Grolsch widebodies would perhaps be his choice."

"Then I will fill in for Chips and drink the Grolsch while QB has his signature Ramey Rimshot which, if I recall correctly, includes 5 shots of rum, a splash of grenadine, a slice of tangerine, and a flaming layer of 151 rum."

"Your recall is perfect Buck, but Jam make it a triple".

As Jam went to prepare the libations she was focusing on tangerine and realized that if the FAA and US Department of Justice were legit, they would look at Civil Case 3:07-cv-49 and reset the Terror Threat Level to 'tangerine'. Jam also considered that Judge RMC at District Court of District of Columbia probably would want Civil Action 08-1600 (RMC) settled rather than to have 9/11 crimes dragged into her courtroom.

She realized that if Chips was having random thoughts similar to hers, he was probably doing a color guess in his rapier like mind and of course if he'd like to rapier her, she wouldn't mind. Just to keep him focused, she Clippered him "iPod F4" as Buck applied TOGA power and launched the Gulfstream on its merry way, departing CYYC to the north then turning left direct to Abbotsford. Chips received her Clipper message regarding iPod F4 and asked Stone to tune the Limo Clipper to that selection. As Stone drove Hamish and Chips to the Barley Mill, they could all read Jam's mind as they listened to the lyrics she sent:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Swicdtaddy0>

Hamish immediately guessed that Jam was trying to suggest the color du jour was a raspberry shade, and Stone agreed. "Good guess guys but Jam laid it in the weeds by having a kiwi colored backdrop behind the lyrics. Remember, it is the artwork behind the lyrics that reveals the mind of the arsonists. So my guess is that Jam will be back here in Calgary tonight and that she will be wearing at least one item of clothing that is the color of Kiwi fruit."

"But Dad, weren't you and Jam supposed to be in Banff tonight?"

"Right you are Stone, you're a block off the old Chip. However, when you and Hamish drive to Banff with a pair of good sports from the Barley Mill, I will remain behind to do a little Jammin' if you follow me."

"I'm picking up what your laying down, Dad, no problem".

"Chips, you are so predictable even the FBI could anticipate your next move" admonished the erudite sexagenarian who had previously worked for Schlumberger and on Baker Street.

"Since when?" was the laconic reply from the world's most consistent laconic opiner. As Stone pulled into the parking area to the west of the Barley Mill, Hamish's Clipper took a routine call from the Northwestern University Abel Danger plant named "Padre".

"Blabbermouth NU Clipper: VH1 cable television network is based in New York City. It's heavy into heavy metal. They intentionally bypass screening to recruit violent killers to go on stage with potential victims. Huge investment machine needs people for TV porn – soft or hard, light or heavy. VH1 licensed Celeb reality show from Los Angeles-based 51 Minds Entertainment which uses public relations firm 42 West and Row 44 technology. They are covering butts and cracks by accusing Canadian court clerk of an 'error' re Jenkins. 51 Minds hired investigators at Collective Intelligence who screen more than 90 production companies with hundreds of TV shows on virtually every major network. Fiore's teeth were pulled out and her fingers cut off. They had to use serial number on her breast implant for identification. Her fate is classical signature of a Mau Mau oath taker. Jenkins should look out for reincarnation of Angelo "the Hook" LaPietra; nickname is derived from meat hook from which he would hang debtors. Sidley and Northwestern set up pay-per-view transmission of heavy metal with blood and gore snuff through Telesat Canada and AT&T. They had Michelle intern with Dohrn for IP law. Barney the Purple Dinosaur was a front to protect IP of CRaP and snuff. Sidley trustees at Northwestern arranged $340 million revolving credit with Matrix Red's JPMorgan for Lionsgate to launch FEARNet horror channel. VH1, Lionsgate and TV Guide's on-demand platform serves 200 horror titles a year; 70 hours of programming a month including Bram Stoker's Dracula, Night of the Living Dead and The Return of the Texas Chainsaw Massacre. Matrix Red now has interactive database 'Horror A-Z' to allow investors, actors, directors and producers to link up with victims such as Fiore.

FEARnet users can select, hire and reward killers, move victims in Ryder trucks, create a heavy metal storyline with camera and video player and flog snuff through Matrix Red.”

Hamish recalled the fact that heavy metal bands, pyrotechnic devices, and attempts at mind control were the concerns of not only of the fugitive, Jenkins, but had been concerns of John Lennon just prior to his murder in front of the Dakota Apartments in October of 1980. Hamish was well aware that October was Chips' birth month, and that Captain Sherlock's headquarters were in 'Dakota Territory', as it were. Not as it is, but as it were prior to November 2nd, 1889. While Hamish ruminated on Chips' unpredictable nature he felt compelled to communicate with Premier Campbell of British Columbia as well as Canadian Prime Minister Stephen Harper and the Alien Occupant:

http://blogs.laweekly.com/westcoastsound/assets_c/2008/12/ac-dc-live-at-the-forum-night-two-sold-out.2823083.56-thumb-480x319.jpg

“Sent August 24, 2009 Dear Premier Campbell: VHI Dirty Deeds Done Cheap - Bombing Vancouver 2010 .. belief VHI investors using a network of pyrotechnic companies to simulate special effects, for example the gerb waterfalls at an AC/DC 'Dirty Deeds Done Cheap' road show or the dial-a-yeild bombing of the Vancouver 2010 Winter Olympic Games” .. “Our Blabbermouth agents have evidence that the VHI investors arranged for contract hits of Jasmine Fiore and her ‘suicided’ ex-husband Ryan Jenkins to protect VHI’s Dirty Deeds production network, allegedly responsible for the fate of the buildings above. “HOPE, British Columbia (AP) Reality show contestant Ryan Jenkins' life ended in a way that could have been scripted for TV: as police investigated the murder suspect's suicide at a secluded Canadian motel, word came Monday that a mysterious young woman had checked him in there. Accused of the gruesome death of his ex-wife, a model whose body was so badly mutilated it had to be identified by her breast implants' serial numbers, Jenkins evaded a massive international manhunt for days as he crossed from California into his native Canada.

<http://groups.yahoo.com/group/hawkscafe/message/985> ”

The letter to the Premier of British Columbia was sent at the same time Captain Sherlock's Minnesota Limo was snapping some photos of the FEMA warehouse that occupies a former WalMart store on the edges of Moorhead and Dilworth, Minnesota. Because Chips and the Presidential Limo were in Calgary, a clone Limo and a body double for Chips were deployed to the FEMA photo shoot. The money shot is attached here. While the body double was snapping the photos, a FEMA official replete with FEMA ID demanded to know what 'BD' [body double?] was doing. Our unflappable BD ignored the FEMA representative and took more photos, including the offending FEMA personality. It is imperative to understand that when FEMA offered assistance to Fargo, North Dakota following the Flood of 2009, Fargo's mayor Dennis Wallaker effectively said "No thanks, not on my watch." While BD snapped photos he also put some 'extra parts' on the FEMA trailers and the Ryder truck. It will be interesting to see where they go from the Dilworth WalMart Lot. Hmmhhh.

As Hamish sat alone in the Limo texting 'Padre' and the Premier, Stone and Chips went into the Barley Mill and took over Marquis d'Cartier's stool and the one to the right of it.

On the Barley Mill cocktail napkin that MdC had handed Chips, the only clues were 'stool with KISS cap' and '2 x 10 = table 16'. As Stone ordered a pair of 16 ounce Black and Tans, Chips asked the bartender if there was a 'table 16' in that portion of the Barley Mill. As the bartender delivered the beers, he motioned to a corner table for 4 where a young blonde woman in her early 20's sat with a similar looking woman in her mid-40's, apparently the "2 10s" that MdC had observed.

As Stone wiped off his beer moustache he also noticed the two blondes and more importantly the two empty chairs and the fact there were neither cocktail napkins nor drink glasses at those two empty spots. While Stone took another pull on his Black and Tan, Chip's Clipper took a 'priority' call from Agent Vani in Vancouver, not the Barley Mill Agent Ian:

"Blabbermouth III Clipper: Hillary uses International Civil Aviation Organization ('ICAO') Standards to allow identity theft and move VH1 hit teams and camera crews through patented RFID on electronic passports. QH's US-VISIT Visa Waiver Program is mandatory as at Oct. 26, 2006. Non-immigrant visitors can now set up snuff films of oath taking ceremonies during visit to U.S. or Canada. QH using FBI Virtual Case File network to conceal alien SWAT teams with electronic passports approved by ICAO – a United Nations agency controlled by Maurice 'Mau Mau' Strong with keys to the B&H microfilm archives of money shots of dismembered victims and extorted killers."

As Hamish was finishing up outside in the Limo he printed the Clipper from Agent Vani in Vancouver and watched an older cowboy looking man walk into the Barley Mill. His body looked like it had been through a rodeo or two, in his younger days. Hamish followed the gentleman into the Barley Mill and was somewhat surprised to see him zero in on Chips and Stone. Stone had put on the KISS cap and was going to talk to the blondes but was stopped by Ian.

"Marquis d'Cartier, I presume?" queried the older cowboy.

"No sir, I am Stone. However, this is MdC's cap that I am wearing; the real owner got called away on another project." As Stone and Ian shook hands, the two blondes sauntered over and said "Good evening Ian, would you care to join us at our table?" as the older woman pointed to table #16.

"Can my young friend here come along?" asked Ian as he pointed his right thumb over his left shoulder at the fully erect Stone, meaning simply that he was standing tall, much like Burton Cummings admonished Abel Danger to do in 1977 at the 10th Anniversary of Abel Danger Under Cover, held at the Fargo Civic Auditorium, the same Civic Auditorium that Del Shannon performed at during his last live show before he was no longer alive, having taken his own life in February, 1990, capeche?

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=LCc8wyBBsbA>

The two blondes nodded in the affirmative as Ian and Stone followed the ladies back to table #16. As the younger lady settled herself, Stone got a glimpse of cinnamon which, being a block off the old Chips, prompted him to ask "Do either of you ladies like that song by Neil Young, Cinnamon Girl?" Stone enjoyed another brief flash as the ladies went into pre-lube and gushed "Yes, I do" simultaneously. Ian, knowing full well that the ladies recognized him but doubting the young American did asked the other 3, "Who would be the most significant musical personalities in Canada during the last 40 years?"

"Neil Young" responded Cinnamon Girl.

"Gordon Lightfoot" replied Mom, as the circle got smaller.

Stone got the third vote and he suggested "The Guess Who, as it spawned 2nd and 3rd careers for Burton Cummings and Randy Bachman of BTO".

"Well, son, I was thinking of someone a little more country-ish" responded the former male half of Ian and Sylvia.

"Oh, I get it. You are talking about Chris LeDoux" replied Stone with a wise-ass look on his face, part of his father's legacy.

Chris LeDoux was born Oct. 2, 1948, in Biloxi, Miss., and raised in Austin, Texas. His father was an Air Force pilot who was posted to various parts of the United States. Chris, Chips and Stone all 3 had fathers who were Air Force pilots, Chris and Chips both shared an October 2nd birthday, and Chris and Chips both were from Texas. Don't mess with Texas.

Stone then gave up his act and said "Pleasure to meet you Mr. Tyson, my father loves your songs, especially 'Four Strong Winds' and 'Someday Soon'."

"And Stone I love your father's work at Abel Danger, let me introduce Bambi and Trix, two Abel Danger Agents from Alberta. Bambi needs to get over to Hope, BC very quickly in order to interrupt a faked suicide involving the Jenkins-Fiore fairy tale. I have a Lear 35 waiting at the Skyservice FBO and a PT Cruiser with blacked out windows waiting at Abbotsford, would you be able to help the lady over there with Project Comelot?"

"I'd be delighted, we can leave now, my Abel Danger car is in the handicapped parking outside.." responded Stone as the young woman looked him up and down.

"What handicap do you possess?" asked the younger lady, Bambi from Abel Danger LeDuc, AB.

"Elephantiasis of the crank" responded our man Stone, a block off the old Chips.

As the young Bambi blushed and started sudsing like a MayTag, Trixie chimed in "he is referring the Limo Bambi, it is a super trick and PW LT1 Corvette under the hood and if it's the Georgia Limo it has a wild cam, big meats, high torque dipstick, chrome muffler bearings and a Class of 67 tassel from Ramey AFB, Puerto Rico which also produced Abel Danger Agents QB, Jam, Stone's father and two other Abel Danger sub-units the All Stars from Destin, Florida as well as the Trolls out of Austin, Texas."

Stone asked his father if Chips would be willing to run them over to the FBO to get in the Lear but Chips indicated that he and Hamish were busy with Clipper Calls from RayVen 02, Swan and Agent Bent. Ian indicated that he and Trixie would deliver the young pair and within 20 minutes they were back from the drop as the Lear 35 was turning left out of traffic and accelerating to .9 IMN on a direct heading to Abbotsford, with continuing service to Hope.

About the same time that Ian and Trixie returned to Table 16, Chips got an incoming Clipper from Diehard "perimeter secure, T-Bird, Hope, send tiger meat". Chips and Hamish were going to answer when an immediate Clipper came in from Tango working the Jenkins caper from his location near Vancouver BC:

"Blabbermouth IV-C Clipper: QH issued e-Passports to prisoners when she launched the Justice Prisoner and Alien Transportation System in 1995. She served as Senior Counsel for Detention and Deportation Program, Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS, now US Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE). She can move anyone across any border. She pulled Marshals out of Murrah before building was hit by the aliens from Canada. She privatized files on Soetoro at the Office of Personnel Management and put them into Bell & Howell's microfilm archive operated through Northwestern. Bienen and CFR leaders have access for a 2010 Olympic Pyrotek show."

Tango followed up his preface remarks with the closing thought that Amelia had drawn all the long straws she was going to draw and Tango recommended she 'jump ship' before Madam Melusina pulls the plug on the Alien Occupant, Queen Hornet, and Sasquatch in an NLE captioned Amalgam Power Snatch-Lady Fingers. Just as Tango had expressed that concern, an 'immediate' Clipper came in from Dwarf indicating that the G550 was on the ground at Abbotsford.

"Chips: Oh! My appetite is "whetted." I love the suicided finishing touch and we can point the evidence to Melusina of State as Slick Willie would be just proud of her manhandling the Dude with her arm in a sling. Suicides run in her circle. Getting him into her swimsuit was brilliant. Great thinking, Sir. Dwarf"

Hamish and Chips considered the cryptic message from Dwarf and noticed the last word was 'Sir' indicating everything preceding 'Sir' was disinfo of the caliber that FBI level 5 guys promulgate. Dwarf would never call Chips sir as he was 15 years older. Sir simply indicated 'stated in reverse' and 'Sir' was a cryptic signal Chips and Hamish well understood. Hamish had requested that when the Gulfstream would arrive that Dwarf send a Sir message with code word "whetted".

As Stone and Bambi closed on Abbotsford at the rate of 9 miles a minute they sent a Clipper to Diehard, Dwarf, Jam and QB who now where getting into a black SUV provided by Rico and Tango, also from the Vancouver Abel Danger branch sometimes referred to as Faction 6 because their office postal code in Canada, K6V 1C5 was too cumbersome. And besides, the numbers in both 3 character sets summed up to '6'....think of MI6, Barmey Badger, Hamish and Baker Street.

Chips and Hamish were just finishing off the first round, so they joined Ian and Trixie at Table 16.

"Status check Chips" asked Ian.

"Status pending, the circle is small" responded Chips as Hamish nodded and took a long pull on his signature Sparkling Water with Lime Slice. A waitress had just walked up to Table 16 as 4 Clippers went off with images and text below:

“Blabbermouth Nano Clipper: Brucey B TF’d FBI in "Trilogy" program; FBI offices were denied access to Northwestern’s Internet2. Bienen and Peterson, used New York’s Business International Corporation and Northwestern’s Internet2 network to reward members of CIA/SAD camera crews following dark fiber delivery of various money shots such as the image of the ‘9/11 Jumper’ above. Northwestern is founding member of Internet2 project and Bienen serves on the UCAID Board which runs International Center for Advanced Internet Research (iCAIR) al-Qaeda network at <http://www.cair.com/> to create dial-a-yield effects for VH1 heavy-metal and Nano al-Umina snuff. Northwestern agents have to kill Jenkins before he blows the whistle on FiberCo. Follow dark fiber <http://www.internet2.edu/membership/updates/0709.html> to Northwestern’s dial-a-yield genocides and the archives of snuff. Look for academics with a grudge. Note Oxoby was co-owner, recording engineer, Super Bee Studios, 1996–1999 and is a musician into heavy metal discography and blood and gore filmography.”

The foursome read the incoming from Dr. Nano al-Umina and ordered another round. Ian deferred to Trixie who ordered a Merlot, Ian ordered a double-bourbon water back, Chips slipped her a card with the recipe for a Captain Sherlock Martini and Hamish said "The usual, make it a triple" to which the buxom young waitress wrote down 'sparkling water x3 + lime' which was short hand for Hamish's powerful potion. After the waitress had withdrawn, Ian whispered low and the other three leaned forward to hear.

"That guy sitting alone at the end of the bar is Oxoby. He's here a little early as the Mutilators are supposed to be featured on the in house video feed tonight. However, the real Mutilators are up at Banff right now, I guarantee you. I will fill you in later. However, watch what a hundred dollars can do to ruin the mood of a Mutilator wannabe" as he noticed the waitress coming back with the drinks. He taped the $100 to a DVD-Tyson, Ian - The Gift, A Tribute To Ian Tyson, CD .

As the waitress placed the drinks at the proper places, Ian asked her if she was getting good tips at the present time. She nodded the iCAIR way, as if she were in the negative cutting business, pointed at Oxoby and said quietly "Just some college boy dorks tonight, they never tip well."

"Well sugar britches, here's $50 to make up for college boy, and if you put this CD on at 8 pm instead of the Mutilators you can keep what's taped to it." As the college age waitress saw the $100 bill, she smiled, said thank you, and said "I can do even better than that, just watch the TV now.

As the rejuvenated waitress went to the waitress station she conspired with the bartender, and moments later, on the mega screen TV came the Bobby Bare song that was a monster hit in the USA in 1965, two years prior to Abel Danger's being joined by a young Chips from Punahou School, Honolulu, Hawaii, the same Punahou where 12 years later a Kenya born Muslim kid from Indonesia would launch his insult of Occidental College and later Columbia Uniperversity.

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2GG3ZRmntoQ>

As "Four Strong Winds" wound down, bartender Billy Ocean, announced: "Ladies and gentlemen, I regret to inform you that due to the recent murders of Jasmine Fiore and Michael Jackson, an Alberta Hunter simulation on VH 1 has postponed tonight's session with Professor Oxoby and the Mutilators for the same reason that Peterson and Ayers Sr. ordered CBS to postpone an airing of 'Psycho' on the day of Valerie Percy's funeral. The Mutilators have been detained in Banff by members of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. Instead we will show two CDs that encompass much of the career of Alberta's own Ian Tyson, who is seated in the corner. It is my belief that during the break between the two DVDs being featured tonight he will autograph DVDs or CDs his entourage will be offering for sale." As the bartender finished his remarks, a headline burst across the VH1 screen with the story that Michael Jackson's death had been determined to be homicide, and that the circle was becoming smaller in the search for Ryan Jenkins, the framed killer of Jasmine Fiore. As the VH1 signal went back to regular programming "Someday Soon" by Suzy Bogguss was being aired while at the left end of the bar a visibly shaken Oxoby ordered another Shirley Temple and nervously dialed 202-324-3000, the FBI tipline, and left an urgent message for CIA/SAD and its female BlackBerry-wielding intellectual-property agent in the White House.
